

On-Board Courier

Lohn Aviation OBC Service organises the worldwide and reliable transport of your shipment. With our worldwide network of agents, we bring your critical goods reliably, quickly and economically to the most remote regions of the world. Compared to our same-day express service, our OBC service is an economical alternative that makes optimal use of the available capacity of scheduled flights.

Our on-board couriers are experienced professionals who ensure that your shipments reach their destination safely and on time. This personal accompaniment service ensures a high level of safety and reliability. Whether you only need airport-to-airport or door-to-door logistics. We take care of all the details of your freight, including pre-carriage and post-carriage if required.

Our USP

1 IATA travel agency in-house
We have an overview of all flight connections and can react quickly for you.

Personal delivery
we deliver your shipment directly and take care of all the details, such as customs. 2

3 Trust
